PUBLIC COMMENT(S)

MR. NEIL SULLIVAN, CITIZEN, REGARDING BOARD AND COMMISSION MEETINGS:

Mr. Sullivan came before council regarding method of meeting notifications for boards, etc. Mr. Sullivan suggested that the information that was in the county's annual report be put in the Hampton County Guardian's Annual Magazine that is published in December. He stated that at least citizens would know the frequency, time and location of the board meetings. Mr. Sullivan informed council that if a citizen did not drive by the building in which the meeting was held, they would not know about the meeting. Mr. Sullivan informed council that he made a FOIA request to the Council on Aging on September 16, 2015 and has not received any response. Council Member Haulsee commented that it is the county's responsibility to notify the public, but the people have a duty to do so too. Council thanked Mr. Sullivan for his comments.
